

CCHCSP (Canadian Child Health Clinician Scientist Program)
CURRICULUM
2011-2022

CURRICULUM COMMITTEE

DR. PIA WINTERMARK, CCHCSP McGill Center Leader

Sessions will be from 1-2pm on the date specified below (except if otherwise mentioned). All sessions will be virtual. A zoom link will be sent to attendees before the session

SESSION	DATE	LOCATION	LECTURER
Session 1: Abstract/manuscript preparation	October 13	Virtual	Dr. Jess Papenburg
Session 2: Critical appraisal of a published study Session 1 One attendee volunteers to propose an article before session. Every attendee read the article before session.	November 3	Virtual	Dr. Michael Kramer
Session 3: Developing a research question/designing a study	November 17	Virtual	Dr. Gabriel Altit
Session 4: Biostatistics primer	December 15	Virtual	Dr. Marc Beltempo
Session 5: Critical appraisal of a published study Session 2 One attendee volunteers to propose an article before session. Every attendee read the article before session.	January 19	Virtual	Dr. Michael Kramer
Session 6: Sample size calculations	February 9	Virtual	Dr. Emmanouil Rampakakis
Session 7: Critical appraisal of a published study Session 3 One attendee volunteers to propose an article before session. Every attendee read the article before session.	March 2 (To be confirmed)	Virtual	Dr. Michael Kramer
Session 8: How to present your data (poster/presentation)	March 23	Virtual	Dr. Patricia Fontela
Session 9: Critical appraisal of a published study Session 4 One attendee volunteers to propose an article before session. Every attendee read the article before session.	April 13 (To be confirmed)	Virtual	Dr. Michael Kramer
Session 10:	May 4 (To be confirmed)	Virtual	Dr. Brett Burstein

Literature Searching for Clinical and Research Questions; Pragmatic versus Comprehensive

To obtain a CCHCSP Attendance Certificate, you need to attend at least 10 sessions over 2 years.